FOR REVISION SCHEDULE BY SCHEDULE

Champ Clark Also Would Name Committees in the House Differently.

DEMOCRATS CALL CAUCUS

Meet Jan. 19 to Select Ways and Means Body—Larger Rules Committee.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16—Representative Champ Clark issued a statement tonight, fully outlining his platform as the prospective speaker of the Democratic House of Representatives in the next Congress. He proclaims himself in favor of the appointment of committees of the House by a committee, rather than by the speaker; and he states his belief that the tariff should be revised, schedule by schedule, rather than in one single bill. These two subjects, says Mr. Clark, are the ones upon which he has been continually importuned to make some statement.

The Democratic members of the House sent out a call today for a caucus January 19, of the Democratic membership of the next House of Representatives. Mr. Clark's statement is both an explanation of the call and a declaration of his own platform as the probable speaker of the House. The caucus will select a ways and means committee and a rules committee somewhat larger than the present committee of seven. Mr. Clark believes one of these committees should then be empowered to select the other committees of the House.

"There are two theories of tariff revision," says Mr. Clark in his statement; "revision by one general bill and revision by separate bills for separate schedules. This is a matter not of principle but of method.

Take Up Worst Features First.

"Individually, I prefer the scheme of separate bills for separate schedules, [illegible] obnoxious features first, perhaps in certain cases having separate bills for particular items."

The statement proceeds to say that whatever method is decided upon, full hearing as comprehensive as that which preceded the framing of the Payne-Aldrich law will be had by the new ways and means committee.

"The assumption, growing out of ignorance in certain quarters," says Mr. Clark, "that President Taft or Senator Cummins or any other Republican has discovered something new in tariff revision by the separate schedule scheme is preposterous.

"As far back as the Fifty-second Congress, Mr. Chairman Springer introduced separate bills for separate schedules and even for particular items which were derisively denounced 'Springer's Popular Gunbills' by ribald Republican speakers and writers; and several years before Judge Springer was chairman of the committee on ways and means, Mr. McKenzie of Kentucky, achieved both great renown and the sobriquet of 'Quinine Jim,' by securing the passage of a bill putting quinine on the free list and touching no other item whatsoever in any tariff schedule."

Mr. Clark declares that he is heartily in favor of inviting to the caucus all the Democratic members-elect. He goes on to say that his efforts for the last two years have been directed to the unification of the Democrats in the House, and for that reason members-elect should be given every opportunity to express their choice in the naming of committees.

"Don't Care to Appoint Committees."

The questions, Mr. Clark says, of interest to the country, are how the Democrats will select their committees and what the party will do with the tariff. This last question has been answered and proceeding to the first he says:

"As to the mode of selecting committees in the event of my own election to the speakership I would not care the snap of my finger to exercise the power of appointing them. I have stated that to every Democratic member who cared to inquire my opinion.

P. O. DEPT. STARTS CRUSADE AGAINST FRAUD---19 ARRESTS

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 16. Nineteen arrests were made today by postal inspectors in Pennsylvania and New Jersey in the government's crusade against persons accused of using the mails to defraud. The defendants were given hearings before United Sttes commissioners and held in bail for trial or for further hearings.

Seven of the defendants were given hearings in Philadelphia. These were four officials of the Chain Shoe Stores syndicate with offices here; two constitute the Pine Heights company, a New Jersey land improvement concern, with Philadelphia connections, and the seventh is a local physician.

A list of the results of the hearings follow:

Chain Shoe Stores Syndicate—Louis L. Rice, president, Philadelphia; Andrew C. Patterson, first vice president, also president of the Excelsior Trust company of Philadelphia; Edgar Pohligg, second vice president and treasurer; George H. Brooks, third vice president, Philadelphia. Each was held on $1,000 for a further hearing.

Pine Heights Company—Robert G. McMorris, Philadelphia; Harry F. Stanton, Ocean City, N. J.; waived hearing and held in $500 bail each for trial.

Other individuals arrested were: Dr. J. B. Hornstein, Philadelphia; Charles B. McKee, Huntington, Pa.; J. S. Lepech, Ridgway, Pa.; John A. Weltzel, Lancaster, Pa.; Abram Stauffer and Oscar A. Stauffer, Palmyra, Pa.; William S. Leam, Lebanon, Pa.; Ira C. Webster, Newark, N. J.; Oscar Gustaveson, Jersey City, N. J.; S. Joseph Silverman, Pittsburg, Pa., and Lewis Conrad, Conrad Lotz and William Bingham, officers of the Correspondence Institute of America, at Scranton. This organisation has no connection with the International Correspondence School.

The Various Charges.

The government alleges that the Chain Shoe store syndicate sold stock through fraudulent representations.

Dr. Hornstein, the Philadelphia physician, is accused of sending through the mails circulars advertising a remedy, and is charged with making fraudulent statements in his literature.

Conrad, Lotz and Bingham, are, respectively, the president, secretary and treasurer, and manager of the Correspondence Institute of America. The postal inspectors allege that this concern procured lists of high school students and wrote to them their names had been recommended as those of persons with artistic talent. On this account the institute offered a $42 course of art instructions under its faculty of fine artists for $18.50. It was said there was no faculty of artists but there were 60,000 students enrolled in the books of the concern.

McKee, who was arrested in Huntingdon, traded as the Charles B. McKee Commission company and the Huntingdon Fruit and Produce company. It is alleged that he bought produce of farmers through the mails and failed to make payments.

Lepech is a jeweler and is alleged to have defrauded the Adams Express company with a false claim for $3,000 damages. His claim was an alleged loss of $2,000 worth of jewelry which he said he had sent to a Philadelphia jewelry firm, for appraisal. It is charged that Lepech merely sent an empty box through the express company.

Weltzel is accused of buying bronze and iron casting through the mail and neglecting payment.

Gustaveson is said to have sent improper literature through the mails.

Silverman is alleged to have collected money for a supposed charity, using the names of Pittsburg people without their consent.

The arrests, it is said, were ordered by the postmaster general, who had postal inspectors at work on the cases for a month and a half.

SUBCOMMITTEE OF 7 WILL MEET SOON

A meeting of the subcommittee of seven, appointed to draw up a constitution and by-laws, for submission to the larger committee representing the different civic bodies of the city, will probably be held next Monday night. The date is not certain, but members of the committee want to get to work on the important matter as soon as possible.

While nothing definite has as yet been decided as to the influence and distribution of power of the component parts it is suggested in the committee that there be a vice president for each organisation that merges. This man will be the head of that part of the larger organisation, which will act as a unit when it comes time to represent the community as a whole.

Whether the different organizations will drop their names and entities, is also not known yet. There seems to be a sentiment among some that a separate organization, for the transaction of individual matters, should be maintained. Others feel that a section of the big body could just as well take care of such interests.

It is evident that the committee will be very careful to frame the temporary constitution and by-laws so that it will be impossible for any man or set of men or interests to get even partial control of the organization. The idea among all the members of the committee and the subcommittee seems to be "a bigger and a better Colorado Springs, FIRST."

WHITNEY GUILTY

DENVER, Dec. 16. Alexander E. J. Whitney, former state boiler inspector was tonight found guilty of larceny of the certificate books of the boiler inspector's office, after a trial lasting two days. The penalty is from one to two years imprisonment. The defense asked for the usual time to file a motion for a new trial, which was granted.

Whitney was appointed state boiler inspector by Governor Shafroth at the beginning of his term two years ago. State Auditor Rhoady Kenehan, immediately upon taking office, began an investigation of the methods of the boiler inspector's office. It was discovered that fees for inspecting boilers had been collected and no stubs for the receipt of such fees kept. This method was shown to have been in use in previous administrations and Auditor Kenehan announced that he would proceed criminally against Whitney and certain of his predecessors.

Whitney fled and was apprehended in California, where he had purchased a fruit ranch near San Francisco and was about to settle upon it. Whitney's plea was that he had followed the system used by those who had preceded him in office. The system was to collect fees and destroy the records. This was the foundation for the larceny charge.

Whitney was removed from office by Governor Shafroth when it became known that he had left the state

BIG STRIKE IN EL PASO MINE

GRAB SAMPLES RUN UP TO $1,700 TON.

Exposed by Company in Second Level Main Shaft, After Lessees Give Up.

One of the richest strikes of the year has been made at the second level of the El Paso main shaft, by miners working under the personal direction of Superintendent John Nicholls, on the southeast end of the property. This ground has been active under lease for several months, but the operators discouraged by failure to open up ore of shipping grade, recently surrendered the lease. Superintendent Nicholls determined to prospect this ground and put a machine man to work. Within a few feet of the point where work commenced on company account, a rich shoot has been exposed.

The shoot found north of the old Tillery ore shoot and on the same vein, is widening out with every round of shots, and grab samples across 10 inches to a foot of the quartz yesterday gave returns of from $1,100 to $1,700 to the ton. The remaining vein matter will make good average milling grade ore, after the rich rock is sorted out. The Tillery shoot produced in excess of $900,000, and there is every reason to expect the new ore body will prove equally productive, inasmuch as the ore exposed in the fifth level, and now under development on company account, is directly under the discovery in the second level, thereby proving the shoot to be continuous.

The water in the main shaft is steadily lowering, and the sixth level is available for working operations. Active operations on company account will be commenced there as soon as the drift is examined and the tracks are cleared.

LONGER WORKING HOURS FOR GOVERNMENT CLERKS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16. President Taft today authorized the members of his cabinet to increase the working hours of the various department clerks in Washington by requiring them to report half an hour earlier in the morning or to remain half an hour later in the afternoon.

As to putting the new order into effect, however, Mr. Taft left the matter to the various department heads. Just what the outcome will be is problematical.

BREAKS LEG SECOND TIME

Special to The Gazette

CRIPPLE CREEK, Dec. 16. Charles [illegible], driver for the Colorado Trading and Transfer company, today fractured his left knee, when a wagon in which he was riding turned over. Six months ago [illegible] broke the same leg [illegible] the knee, when he was caught between a wagon he was driving and a freight car. He was just recovering from that injury and was planning to return to work in a day or two, when the second accident occurred.

American women who have been workers in the British elections. Above, on the left, is Viscountess Acheson (Miss Mildred Carter), and to her right the Duchess of Marlborough (Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt). Below is Mrs. Waldorf Astor, Jr. (Miss Nannie Langhorne).

The Duchess of Marlborough, although she does not advocate militant tactics, is a firm believer in woman suffrage, and she has persistently voiced the suffragette cry at semipublic gatherings and in private.

On the other hand, Lady Acheson frequently attended antisuffrage meetings besides working quietly but steadily for the Conservative interest.

Mrs. Waldorf Astor gave vigorous help to her husband's fight for capture of Plymouth from the Liberals. It was uphill work, too, owing to the bitter fight made against the American dollar looming so large in this election.

Storms Demoralize Shipping on Eastern Coast; Heavy Snow

BOSTON, Dec. 16.—The northwest blizzard of last night and today brought disaster to shipping along the Massachusetts coast and tonight four schooners were known to have been wrecked, another was in tow disabled, one barge had foundered and other barges were reported adrift and missing.

The revenue cutter Gresham, which took aboard the crews of two sinking schooners and assisted other vessels, spent the entire day and most of the night undoing the havoc of the storm. Up to tonight no definite report of loss of lives had reached this city.

The vessels which suffered from the storm include:

Schooner Thomas B. Garland of Portsmouth, a total wreck on Great Point bar, Nantucket. The crew were rescued early today by the Coskata life saving crew.

Schooner Abbie G. Cole of Machias, Me., stranded and waterlogged on Stonehorse shoal off Monomoy Point. The crew was rescued by the Gresham [illegible] when the Monomoy Point life savers found the seas too heavy to risk their lifeboats.

The disabled [illegible] H. F. Kimball, taken in tow by the Gresham off Old Harbor.

British schooner A. Fownes, ashore off Monomoy Point. The Gresham took on board the crew late today.

Lumber-laden schooner Stephen G. Loud, abandoned 33 miles southeast of Boston light. The crew was rescued this morning by the steamer A. W. Perry and brought here.

At Portsmouth, N. H., the three-masted schooner Annie F. Conlon arrived today in a disabled condition, 21 days out from Philadelphia.

Anchorages ordinarily safe proved treacherous to vessels last night. The storm was heavily laden with snow. Mariners were unprepared for the change from the mild southerly breeze of Wednesday to the gusty northwester of Thursday. The disturbance was accompanied by intense cold. But even in these trying circumstances the Gresham brought timely aid to several storm-tossed craft.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16. New York experienced its share of suffering and inconvenience caused by the sweep of the cold wave from the northwest which today holds the entire north-

PUEBLO, Dec. 16.—Following receipt of information that the department of the interior has purchased six rescue cars from the Pullman company, which are to be used in the Colorado coal fields, the Santa Fe railroad has made arrangements to conduct a demonstration train with these cars throughout the coal fields on its lines.

CONGRESS WILL ADJOURN TO JAN. 5 FOR CHRISTMAS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16. By a joint resolution Congress will begin its Christmas holiday recess from adjournment Wednesday, December 21 until noon Thursday, January 5.

ENGLISH EDITOR MAKES GRAVE CHARGE

Says War Scares Are Largely Inspired by Armament Contractors.

TAXES BANKRUPT COUNTRIES

Believes Cost of Preparing for Strife Only Leads to Internal Discontent.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—That war scares are largely inspired by "armament contractors, who ultimately would drag various countries into the bankruptcy court," was charged by Francis W. Hirst, editor of the London Economist, in an address before the international conference of the American Society for Judicial Settlement of International Disputes, tonight.

He characterized as absurd the purchase of dreadnoughts by Brazil, "to protect itself against Argentina," and said the rivalry between Japan and the United States was crushing the people of Japan under a load of taxes, while armament expenditures were wrecking Great Britain and Germany.

The supreme court of the United States, as analogous to the proposed arbitral court, was often cited in the discussions of the conference.

Andrew J. Montague, former governor of Virginia, characterized the United States supreme court as an international court, "because it was called upon to settle differences between sovereign states."

Mingle Diplomacy and Justice.

The permanent court of arbitral justice, the purposes of which the society hopes ultimately to put into effect, received favorable and unfavorable treatment by various speakers.

Mr. Hirst, the English representative, commented on the danger of having the court "too judicial," urging that diplomacy be mingled with justice for the general satisfaction of all.

Mr. Hirst read a letter from Lord Loreburn, lord high chancellor of England, who wrote:

"I need not tell you how deep and sincere is my sympathy with any movement to further any judicial settlement of international disputes. It is the hope of the future and will be realized—of that I am confident—sooner or later. And when it comes, the world will, with gratitude, remember the sustained efforts of the American government in this good cause and will treasure them among the loftiest endeavors of great nations."

Puts Blame on Contractors.

"The growing wealth and power of contractors who supply governments with stores and armaments of all kinds is portentous," continued Mr. Hirst. "They can well afford to keep a press which shall rouse or aggravate national fears and jealousy, playing off one prospective battleship against another.

"The favorite cry of armament mongers is that armaments are the only security. If you are unarmed, they say, you are unsafe; that laws and conventions may be broken and that there is no international force behind an international war, no army or naby behind an international tribunal, no means of arranging an international tribunal. They quote the ancient dogma—if you want peace, prepare for war.

"Yes, but as Mr. Asquith pointed out the other day, the growth of armaments is becoming such a financial

COURT SENDS EDITORS TO JAIL FOR CONTEMPT

LeRoy Sanders and Hugh Allen of Seattle Star, Will Appeal to Highest Court.

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 16.—For criticising the court in connection with the granting of a temporary injunction to the Puget Sound Electric Railway company, Leroy Sanders, publisher of the Seattle Evening Star, was today adjudged in contempt of court and sentenced to four months in the county jail; Hugh Allen, managing editor, to 30 days in jail, and the Star Publishing company was fined $300 by Judge Mitchell Gilliam in the King county superior court.

Judge Gilliam held that the paper's criticism tended to prejudice the public in a case still pending in court. Notice of appeal was immediately given.

Owing to the lateness of the hour, Sanders was unable to furnish the required bail and was committed to jail, where he will remain until tomorrow, when it is expected that the bail will be given. When Sanders was led into the jail office to be booked he collapsed. Allen's wife is seriously ill, and Judge Gilliam permitted him to return to his home for the night.

The attorneys for the editors say that in case the state supreme court rules against them, they will take an appeal to the federal courts, and, if necessary, to the supreme court of the United States.

REBELS DEFEAT GOVERNMENT TROOPS

Mexican Forces Number 1,000 Men Routed—Survivors Surrender.

DETAILS OF FIGHT LACKING

Encounter Occurred Near La Junta American Reported Held for Ransom.

EL PASO, Dec. 16.—The federal troops were completely overthrown in an engagement lasting several hours at La Junta, a small town near Minaca, on the Mexico Northwestern and Orient railroads, according to authentic information received here. At 4:30 this evening the remnant of the federal troops, numbering 150 surrendered their arms and ammunition and were allowed to depart in the direction of Chihuahua.

Owing to the wires being cut in many places no details of the battle can be secured. A telephone wire running north through the mountains brought the news to the Juarez branch of the Mexico Northwestern that the Mexicans were overwhelmingly defeated and that the survivors had surrendered. The federal forces were supposed to number over 1,000 men and were in command of General Navarro and General Hernandez.

The fight at La Junta is doubtless a continuation of the battle reported in the vicinity of San Andres Thursday night. An effort was made today to run trains over the Mexico Northwestern into Chihuahua, but with what success cannot be learned. The railway officials admit that the insurrectos are in complete control of the entire region and that traffic is practically at a standstill.

Insurrectos Capture Train.

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 16.—A special to El Heraldo from Chihuahua, dated yesterday, said fighting had begun anew at Pedernales.

A train from Minaca, Chihuahua, was surrounded by insurrectos upon its arrival, captured and backed to a point near San Antonio, for what purpose is not learned.

THIS CITY AND ENTIRE STATE TO BE BOOSTED

Plans that many result in an immense increase in the tourist trade of the Pikes Peak region were discussed at the recent meeting of a committee from the Rocky Mountain Hotel Men's association with the publicity committee of the Denver Convention league. Members of the committee from the Hotel Men's association from this section are J. A. Himebaugh, G. S. Elstun and E. E. Nichols.

For years past the Denver Convention league has boosted and boomed Denver as a convention city and also as a great tourist resort, with little or no attention given to the other parts of the state. The committee of hotel men at a meeting in Denver Tuesday, brought out the point that in the long run, it would be better for Denver, Colorado Springs, Manitou, Glenwood Springs and all other parts of the state if the publicity work of the convention league boosted the state of Colorado, as well as Denver.

The representatives of the convention league who were present at the meeting seemed to favor the idea, and if signs do not fail, this city, along with the [illegible] will by next [illegible] begin to reap the benefit of an advertising campaign wide enough in scope to cover the entire state.

Another meeting of the hotel men and the league representatives will be held in the near future in Denver.

tion. The exercise of that power would undoubtedly have certain unpleasant features."

Of the two plans for the election of committees by the Democratic caucus or directly by the House itself, Mr. Clark favors the latter. This is based on the fact that in the debatable states the independent voters appear to favor it and the future speaker of the House frankly acknowledges that it may be adopted because of the influence it would have in returning a Democratic President and a Democratic Congress in 1912.

Indications are that any tariff measure brought in by the Democratic members of the ways and means committee in the next Congress will be along the line of revision, schedule by schedule.

The call for the caucus was circulated at the instance of Champ Clark and Mr Underwood of Alabama.

The idea is that to facilitate the work of the next Congress along tariff lines, the Democratic members of the committee should meet early enough to have their action in shape to submit to Congress when it convenes next December.

[illegible] first Colorado College Campus basketball league was organized yesterday afternoon by the five fraternities in the campus and Hagerman hall. The schedule was planned and games will commence about January 5 to be played afternoons in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. It is planned to get a cup for the championship and the team that wins it three times in succession will have it permanently. The Hagerman hall team has a slight advantage over the others in that it has a gymnasium of its own and will be able to practice more. All the high class basketball material in the college will be represented on the teams.

eastern section of the country in its grip. Nine degrees above zero officially registered in the early morning hours, was the temperature in this city, but up the state, where effects of the cold snap were more severely felt the mercury went as low as eight degrees below at Canton, N. Y.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Dec. 16.—A heavy snow fall, a gale of blizzard proportions and a temperature below zero is causing much suffering throughout northern New York today. The cold snap is the first severe one of the winter. A foot of snow has fallen in the past 24 hours and hundreds of roads are blocked by drifts, cutting off communication with the rural districts. Trains in the northern counties are running with difficulty.

UTICA, N. Y. Dec. 16.—A cold wave has all of central and northern New York in its grip today. Big Moose, in the Adirondacks, reports the thermometer 10 below zero. At Tuppo Lake, a temperature of 4 below is registered.

ENGLISH CHANNEL TRAFFIC SUSPENDED ACCOUNT GALE

LONDON, Dec. 16.—Tonight a hurricane raged in the English channel. The wind reached a velocity of 70 miles an hour. Cross-channel traffic between France and Dover was suspended.

At Dover, where the full force of the gale was felt, widespread damage was done to shipping and property along the coast. No serious marine disaster or loss of life at sea has been reported.

A large force of soldiers is engaged at Dover in protecting from the storm several aeroplanes awaiting an opportunity to make the cross channel flight. Two of these were badly damaged.

Along the coast there have been numerous accidents due to the hurricane and many thrilling lifeboat rescues.

Among the seaside resorts, Ilfracombe, on the Devon coast, 10 miles from Barnstable, suffered most. A tremendous wave swept over the parade flooding the shops along the water front and the lower portion of the town.

Almost every seaport from Bristol to the Thames has suffered damage. Off Arklo on the Irish coast, six fishermen were drowned, and at Leicester a man was blown from the roof of a building and killed.

OWNERS BALL CLUBS END ANNUAL SESSION

NEW YORK, Dec. 16. The annual midwinter meeting of the baseball fraternity came to a close tonight with a banquet in which all the club owners in town joined.

The National league ended its annual session by declaring for 154 games commencing April 12, and ending "on or about October 12."

The schedule committee appointed yesterday, will confer with President Ban Johnson of the American league, on the specific dates.

President C. W. Murphy of Chicago won his point to extend the vision to include Columbus day and Chicago day, both holidays being extensively celebrated in Chicago. President Johnson said the American league would end its season "on or about October 16."

Robert Lee Hedges, principal owner of the St. Louis Americans, departed for the west tonight to complete the deal whereby the syndicate composed of Mark and Nat Ewing, M. F. Hodgman, Louis Hellman and Edward Prendergast, will take over the controlling interest in the club. He will meet there the American league committee, consisting of President Ban Johnson, Charles A. Comiskey and Frank J. Farrell.

When the negotiations are over Mr. Hedges will go to Arizona on personal business, and then will go to Europe to remain several years for his health.

AT TERRAZES PARK

JUAREZ, Dec. 16.—Owing to the unusually heavy rainstorm of last night, the management declared the races off at Terraces park today. The card was practically ruined by scratches, the horsemen not carrying to risk their horses on the changed track conditions.

What the Press Agents Say

"THE FORTUNE HUNTER"

For the first time this season the Denver critics are unanimous in regard to the merits of a play, and this play is "The Fortune Hunter," now running at the Broadway theater, Denver, and which will be seen at the Opera House Monday.

Glance over the following Francis Wayne in the Denver Times:

"The large, fashionable audiences at the Broadway thawed like an icepack under a spring breeze and allowed their spirits to run rivulets of laughter before the sunny charms of 'The Fortune Hunter.'

We have seen many plays of many varieties these days. Frequently we have left the theater, carrying the sensation that comes from a sting, and occasionally have returned home satisfied at what the stage has given in return for our admittance coupon.

"But complete satisfaction gripped us last night as the curtain descended upon the genuine, lovable trio about whom Winchell Smith has built his story, and the rain fell in a golden curtain, as though to hide the conclusion of the delicate love venture from curious eyes.

"The great hold, or rather, one of the holds of this comedy is the manner in which it makes the audience a participant rather than a spectator. We sit in the parquet, or boxes, or balcony, or aloft, as the case may be, and gradually we realize that we are not detached gazers at a theatrical performance, but that we are feeling very keenly the troubles that fill the heart of the gentle, aged inventor. The poignant sense of failure that subdues the young hero becomes ours, and his final triumph over circumstance belongs also to us.

"Wherefore it would seem that Winchell Smith has attained the playwright's highest achievement in that he makes all and sundry players in his drama

"'The Fortune Hunter' is a play that every one, from parson in the pulpit to hobo on the road, should see and ponder. It is not a preachy play any more than 'The Music Master' or 'What Every Woman Knows' are preachy. It is essentially human and gives its message of delivery to men and women of the type that are met every day.

"With Klein's music master, Von Barwig, Smith's inventor, Samuel Graham, takes his place. A trifle more understandable is the patient genius of the upstate village with his profound faith in the goodness of man, crystallized in indorsements of notes and loans of money in his prosperous days, and in his childlike gratitude and acceptance of whatever good a frowning fortune may dole out to him.

"And Mr. Bacon's portrayal of the role is so restrained, so delicately scintilliant with humor, so much the realization of one's own ideas of such a man that one instinctively couples his image with that of Warfield.

"Fred Niblo drives Nat Duncan to victory in a fine, healthy, mannish fashion, that has in it none of the naive dilettanteism associated in memory with Jack Barrymore's creation of the part. Niblo's is the sort of a Duncan who would put his hand to the plow without thinking to stop for his gloves, and makes one feel that he is actually enjoying and living his new-found experiences. This fact induced the audience, going along with him, to give the young player a curtain call, ending in a brief speech of acknowledgement and thanks.

"Another definite characterisation is that of Mr. Conlan as the deputy sheriff, low comedy saved from vulgar farce by the intelligence and naturalness of the actor.

"Alma Berwin's Betty Graham is a winsome, appealing girl with an instinct for entrances that lead heartward. The minor roles are in competent hands, and, scenically, 'The Fortune Hunter' leaves nothing to be desired.

"When the week ends each man and woman who cares for clean, sweet drama should have folded 'The Fortune Hunter' away with the good things of memory. A seat at a performance of the Smith drama is the best sort of a Christmas gift to give yourself."

COMEDY AND DRAMATIC "PICTURE PLAYS" AT LYRIC AND CRYSTAL

At the Lyric "His Sergeant's Stripes," a war drama and love story of the Indian country, showing how a young soldier won his stripes and his girl, but did not live to get them.

A Four-Footed Pest is a fast and furious funny subject in which a horse does things that we hesitate to tell you about in full because we doubt if you will believe it all until you see it. The second subject, "The Statue Dog," is another entirely novel feature that will be sure to win applause.

You might imagine from the title, Captain Barnacle's Chaperone, that the film is a rollicking farce. Not so. It is a delightful love comedy in which true love comes into its own as should always be the case in stories of this class.

At the Crystal "Oh You Skeleton" and "The Ghost of the Oven" are a pair of Selig comedies that are good for the blues. "How Rastus Got His Turkey" will make your side ache. It is different from others. "Auld Robin Grey" the charm of the poem is, we believe, most faithfully conveyed in the pictures, telling a tale that digs deep into the heart.

GRAND OPERA SEASON.

It is a long time since a company of great prominence and magnitude has been on tour presenting grand opera in English, and a number of years since such an aggregation has visited this part of the country, and hence since the first announcement of the coming of the Aborn English Grand Opera company to the Opera House Thursday and Friday, December 15 and 16 music lovers of this city and surrounding towns have shown great interest in this coming event, which from all reports from other localities promises to be one of those treats to be remembered for a long time. This organization numbers one hundred singers and musicians, embracing a double cast of principal artists, a large chorus and full harmony orchestra, and presents only the very popular operas—such compositions as the ordinary music lover with little or no technical knowledge can appreciate and enjoy quite as well as the advanced musician or critic. For the Aborn English Grand Opera company's engagement here they have selected "Il Trovatore" for the first and "Carmen" for the second night as their offerings.

EVENLY BALANCED COMEDY OFFERING OPENS TODAY

It is noteworthy that the Sullivan and Considine shows seen at the Majestic are consistently attaining a greater uniformity of excellence. They are all evenly balanced bills—not shows with one or two acts of exceptional strength and attractiveness and the rest fillers but shows in which every act has merit of its own that amply commends it. This was never better shown than in the show which opens this afternoon—a comedy offering in large part that is good all the way through. While Roland Carter and company are billed as the headliners there are other acts that could well occupy the position.

Carter & Co. are a trio of singers and comedians and have the funniest act that has been to the Majestic in some time. The trio carry a special drop curtain which shows the interior of a jail, and the fun hinges on the witty sayings of the two members who are prisoners and one who plays the part of the warden. Many of the jokes are entirely new. Carter as prisoner Murphy is a scream. One of the trio is an excellent yodler. This act will score a tremendous hit.

La Belle Meeker, a very shapely miss as the physical culture girl, is heralded as a winner. Her opening number, a song and dance, is good, but it is on the Roman rings that she shows to the best advantage, doing some very difficult feats. In one place in her act she disrobes in full view of the audience, and while doing so introduces quite a bit of comedy into the scene. She is one of the best formed women that has been seen on the stage in this city in some time.

J. Royer-West and Ida Van Siclen have an excellent musical act and play several instruments, their closing number being the best.

Hetty Urma, known as England's Pet Boy, is very clever and makes a capital boy. She sings several songs and makes two complete changes in her wardrobe.

Tom Gillen tells some funny stories about his friend Finnegan and has a three good song.

Besides this list of features the Majestic concert orchestra will offer a number of its delightful musical programs and the Majestic motion will present new and exclusive motion pictures, the latest and best from the film factories.

GOVERNMENT AHEAD BY DOING ITS OWN SEALING

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—By doing its own sealing in Alaska, the federal government has profited this year more than three times as much as ever before in any single year when the sealing privileges were rented to a commercial company.

Secretary Nagel was advised today from London, where the department of commerce and labor sold its first crop of sealskin, that the 14,000 skins were found to be of the finest quality and netted the government $450,000 in cash.

This is the first year the government has done the sealing. Not only does the government expect to profit but the seal herds will be conserved.

Burial in coffins in England was not usual until "about 1700 or even later." While the right to naked burial was not denied, it was questioned whether our forefathers could insist upon the privilege of being inclosed in "a big box, perhaps imperishable," and so laid in the earth.

BARGES SINK AND SEVEN MEN BELIEVED DROWNED

VINEYARD HAVEN, Mass., Dec. 16.—The foundering of the barge May Wood, the rescue of her crew of four men, and the probable loss of the barges, Scranton and Binghamton, with their crews of three and four men, respectively, were reported here tonight by Captain Vaux of the tug Margaret, which had the barges, all coal laden, in tow from New York to Boston.

children there from Ojinaga and other Mexican towns.

"Teofilo Amadillo, in command at Ojina, crossed the river on Thursday and purchased rifles and ammunition from an American merchant for the Mexican government.

"A detail of rangers passed through Marfa today for duty along the river."

American Reported Captive.

EL PASO, Tex., Dec. 16.—It was reported here today that Enrique Gorneros, son of a wealthy Chihuahua family and graduate of Cornell university, and an American friend named L. R. Wohlhim, were captured by bandits while on an automobile tour to Santa Clara, Wednesday. It is asserted that the men are being held for a ransom of $35,000.

No Arms Through Mail.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Notice has been received by the postoffice department from the postal administration of Mexico, that President Diaz of the Mexican republic has issued an order prohibiting in general the importation into Mexico by mail of arms and ammunition of any kind.

The Mexican exchange offices have been directed by the order to return to their original sender any arms or ammunition which may be contained in the mail at those offices from other countries.

Abancay Captured.

LIMA, Peru, Dec. 16.—Insurgents have taken the town of Abancay, capital of the department and province of Apurimac, in southern Peru. In the fighting which preceded the fall of the town many persons on both sides were killed or wounded.

The government is rushing troops to the disaffected district.

MADERO NAMES GOVERNOR FOR CHIHUAHUA STATE

EL PASO, Tex., Dec. 16.—Abraham Gonzales, a wealthy stock broker of Chihuahua has been appointed provisional governor of Chihuahua state, by Madero, according to information brought here by Luther Ellsworth, American consul at Ciudad Porfirio Diaz. Ellsworth states that Gonzales is in the field near Ojinaga in camp with Gen Perfecto Lomeli, and that the two have command of about 1,000 armed men.

Ellsworth arrived here by automobile from the vicinity of Ojinaga, where he went as special representative of the department of state to investigate conditions. He states that when he left the town was garrisoned by 100 Mexican soldiers and that insurrecto forces 50 miles away numbered 1,000.

SOUNDS WARNING AGAINST THE COMMON HOUSE FLY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Reasonable ordinances to control the billboard and "To protect the public health, safety and morals" can be enacted by cities and villages acting under their police commission, according to Clyde L. Day, assistant corporation counsel of Chicago, who addressed the closing session of the American Civic association today.

"It must be conceded that all locations for billboards are not improper locations," said Mr. Day, "and they may be constructed of such material and of such size and so erected as not to be detrimental to public welfare."

Cyrus Locher, of the Chamber of Commerce of Cleveland, O., in an address on "The Smoke Nuisance," cited the police power as the chief means available to municipal corporations for eradicating smoke evils.

Dr. Hutchinson on Flies.

Dr. Woods Hutchinson delivered a half-humorous, half-serious address on the question, "Why Is a Fly?"

"No longer to be dismissed with a contemptuous 'shoo,' but an influence to be reckoned with, the fly is a hustler from way back," said the speaker, "and he distributes samples of pestilence, marked D. O. D.—'Death on Delivery'—with a lavish hand.

"We may admire him for his industry, pertinacity and business enterprise; we may even love him—lukewarmly—as one of God's creatures; but we had better wipe him gently but firmly out of existence just the same. He is the best traveling salesman known, carries a grip on each of his six legs, and a trunk in his head. His line of samples is extensive and will last from time to eternity. He is more of a nurseryman and tree agent than anything else, the only one whose seeds and cuttings bear blossoms and fruit equal to the pictures in the catalogue. In fact, they bloom, never fading, on the other side of Jordan, or rather transplant you to bloom there."

Among the specialties of the fly, Dr. Hutchinson mentioned:

"Bacillus Typhosus" (Eberth); hardy perennial, seldom known to winter; kills even in Alaska; heavy crop; produces 35,000 deaths annually in the United States. Value of lives destroyed $100,000,000. One-fifth of all who grow it guaranteed never to grow any other. Blossom, rose colored all over abdomen and chest. Fruit, cherry and deepening to black all through the intestines. No difficulty in disposing of the surplus to your neighbors. A splendid variety for both city and country trade. Strong, well rooted specimens, carefully selected from sewer mouths, now ready for delivery. F. O. F.—'Fate on Food.'"

He continued in the style of a seed catalogue, describing Cytocyctes Variolae, otherwise smallpox, as a half-hardy annual, now very rare though formerly a great favorite; Bacillus Tuberculosis is a half-hardy perennial and old favorite, but delicate, easily sun-blistered and will not grow in strong, rich soils; Bacillus Shigae, Aerogenes Capsulatus, Ameba Coli, etc., commonly known as summer complaint, cholera morbus, cholera infantum, etc.—a very attractive group of quick-flowering, tender annuals, specially adapted for kindergartens. Colors black and white, resembling crepe and satin—with plumes on the hearse. Wonderfully fine bloomers, children cry for them, but seldom after them; crop of 1907, 40,000 dead babies; value $20,000,000, as guaranteed by the census bureau. No trouble at all to grow; all that is needed is a baby, a little dirt, plenty of carelessness, and flies will do the rest." And so on through a grim and ghastly travesty of a seedman's catalogue Dr. Hutchinson proceeded, concluding with this warning:

"A fly in the house is as dangerous as a rattlesnake, as filthy as a louse, as disgraceful as a bedbug. The time will come when any modern, cleanly home will feel itself shamed and disgraced by the presence of a fly, and when every householder upon whose premises a brood of flies is detected, will be fined heavily and sent to jail. The fly is a literal 'Eye of the Lord,' because he is in every place beholding evil and the good, especially the evil, for he loves to lay eggs in it. You can't hide dirt from a fly. He is also the most intimate and domestic animal we breed and keep. An ounce of cleanness is worth a ton of fly paper and wire screens. One-half the money wasted on fly traps and window screens, one-fifth the energy squandered in slapping and profanity, would clean up the back yard and wipe out the fly."

burden upon the richest states that the taxation it involves arouses dangerous internal discontents which may at any time provoke outbursts destructive of the world's peace.

War Taxes Cause Bankruptcy.

"The diversion of capital from fruitful enterprises into forts and battleships of men from productive employment to armies and fleets is perhaps the most obvious of the great economic mischiefs of our time. Are all nations to join in the race for expenditures on armies and navies until they fall down one by one, exhausted in the bankruptcy court?

"It is the good fortune of the United States to be rich, populous and powerful, and so far removed from panicky contact with armed neighbors that she is free to play the part of mediator in the international field."

David Starr Jordan, president of Leland Stanford, Jr. university, delivered the closing address on "The Waste of Nations." He deplored the enormous expenditures of war and preparation for it, arguing for the economy of peace.

SCHOONER WRECKED AND CREW PROBABLY LOST

NOME, Alaska, Dec. 16—Four men who were on board, are believed to have been lost in the wreck of the trading schooner Louise in the ice of Bering sea, off Cape Prince of Wales. Remnants of the wreck were found near the cape today. The schooner sailed from Nome last month ago.

MORE WARRANTS ISSUED IN BUCKET SHOP CASES

CHICAGO, Dec. 16.—An investigation of the operations of the Capital Investment company, the alleged bucket shop concern raided by federal agents Thursday, will be made by a federal grand jury next Monday. More warrants for the arrest of correspondents of the Capital Investment company were issued today.

RESCUE WORK IS DELAYED BY BAD AIR AND DEBRIS

DENVER, Dec. 16.—Bad air and the great quantity of debris from fallen roofs and walls in the Leyden mine, where 10 men are entombed as a result of the fire which broke out Wednesday night, checked the progress of rescuers today and the party covered little more than 300 feet of the two and one-half miles of distance from the bottom of shaft No. 1 to the spot where the imprisoned men are supposed to be. It is believed to be physically impossible for the rescuers to reach the men before tomorrow, if then, and there is practically no hope entertained that the men will be found alive.

FARMERS DISAPPOINTED

OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 16.—The delegation of 1,000 Canadian farmers presented their demands to the Canadian government today and received their answer. The reply of the government did not come up to the expectations of the delegation, as it referred only to the tariff, the Hudson Bay railroad and the elevator proposals. Of the tariff, the reply said it would not be wise to make the extensive revision asked for until the reciprocity negotiations now in progress with the United States were concluded. The goal of the government was in the direction in which the farmers were moving, it was added.

CANON CITY MAN SHOT AND SERIOUSLY WOUNDED

CANON CITY, Dec. 16.—W. H. Smith, 50 years old, one of the wealthiest cattlemen of Fremont county, was mysteriously shot through the head and seriously wounded at his home in this city, by Miss Maud Jenkins, 22 years old, who has lived at the Smith home since childhood. Smith's physicians say there is a chance for recovery.

The circumstances leading up to the shooting have not been made public by members of the family, but, according to the statement of Attorney James T. Locke, a friend of Smith, who was called to the bedside of the wounded man, it was accidental, the revolver having been discharged in a playful scuffle.

GRANTS PERMISSION TO SHIP BODY TO CHINA

DENVER, Dec. 16.—The health department yesterday issued a permit for the shipping of the remains of Yee York Say, a Chinese laundryman who died in August, 1902, to China. No worse fate can befall a Chinaman than to be buried outside of his own country, and local Chinamen have been trying for years to raise the funds necessary to exhume the body of their countryman, who was buried at Riverside, and send it back to China, where his chances of entering the Chinese paradise will be enhanced.

ATTACKS CHIEF W. L. MOORE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—James Berry, who resigned as chief division of the United States weather bureau last August as he alleges "under circumstances that left no other recourse," has addressed a letter to President Taft charging Willis L. Moore, chief of the weather bureau with "gross mismenagement, extravagance and irregularities" in the conduct of the affairs of the bureau.

Mr. Berry charges, among other things, that Chief Moore wrote a book on descriptive meteorology in the preparation of which is alleged to have used the services of government employes in their working hours and to have made illegal use of the mailing franks "in disseminating notices to promote the sale of the book."

JUMPS THREE STORIES

PITTSBURG, Dec. 16.—On the snow-covered ledge of a third floor window of South Side hospital, Mrs. Gertrude Hoffman, a delirious patient, battled for five minutes yesterday with three nurses, then, freeing herself, dropped 45 feet into the arms of two men who had been attracted by the screams of the woman.

Physicians say she is not badly injured and that unless complications develop on account of exposure she will recover.

Treating The Wrong Disease

Many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they present alike to themselves and their easy-going or over-busy doctor, separate diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality they are all only symptoms caused by some weakness or derangement of the organs distinctly feminine. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, keeps up his treatment until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better by reason of the wrong treatment, but probably worse. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, wisely devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native American medicinal roots without the use of alcohol. It is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the female system.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the distinctly feminine organs. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. One to three a dose. Easy to take as candy.

EVERY WOMAN ought to possess Dr. Pierce's great book, the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a magnificent thousand-page illustrated volume. ROBBERIES TO LEAD TO VIGILANCE COMMITTEE?

Wholesale robbery of the cabins of prospectors and mountaineers in North Cheyenne canon is arousing the residents, and, according to several old prospectors who were in the city yesterday, they may apply a little "out west" justice of their own. J. A. Stinebaugh, a former resident of this city, and who owns a cabin in North Cheyenne canon, was here yesterday, and told of several robberies which have been perpetrated there in the last three weeks. A cabin belonging to Frank Nelson, a prospector, was robbed of over $50 worth of groceries and then burned to the ground. Nelson worked all summer to get enough to "stake" him through the winter and had purchased part of his supplies.

A cabin belonging to "Dad" Jacobs, in the same section, was robbed of tools and a rifle. The residents will meet tomorrow to arrange for a vigilance committee, and according to Stinebaugh, "they will have power to act."

TRY TO ROB POSTOFFICE

Unknown persons with jack knives, thought to be small boys, have been causing the postoffice authorities considerable trouble lately by damaging the rental boxes in attempts to open that. Two boxes have been practically spoiled by these attempts, which have not netted the would-be thieves anything and the authorities will deal harshly with the miscreants if caught.

COTTAGE SCHOOLS ARE PLANNED FOR ARENSDALE

Cottage schools for Arensdale is the latest idea of the school board to relieve the congestion and provide a better system for that section. The board will take definite action on the matter of a new school system for Arensdale to cost between $5,000 and $6,000, at the meeting January 3 and the Rev. Duncan Lamont, a member of the school board, is investigating modern school buildings on the cottage plan.

Shall We Rejoice

Gladness comes with a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed and assisted by the pleasant laxative remedy Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

Its beneficial effects are due to the fact that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

News of Local Courts

Mary Hickox was granted a divorce from William Hickox in the county court yesterday, on the ground of non-support. The couple were married here in 1898, and the three minor children were awarded to the custody of the plaintiff.

Emma Kuhlman filed suit for divorce from Henry Kuhlman in the county court yesterday. They were married here July 14, 1906. Mrs. Kuhlman alleges cruelty in the complaint and asks that her maiden name, Emma Wehrend, be restored by the court.

Rose and Thomas Brinkley, colored, pleaded not guilty to a larceny charge in the district court yesterday. Their hearing was set for December 22.

On the charge that the Trinchera Canal company is damaging her property by building a reservoir upon it, Margaret McCarthy, of Costilla county, has asked for an injunction restraining the company from doing further work on the Mountain Home reservoir. She alleges that the company promised to pay her for her land but now believes that it has no intention of so doing. The construction of the reservoir, according to the papers filed in the district court, will damage the property to the amount of $20,000.

William McGee was sent to the county jail for 90 days by Justice Dunnington, yesterday, on a charge of vagrancy. McGee was arrested Thursday night by the police at the Vendome. He was released from the Buena Vista reformatory last September.

SUNNY MONDAY

There is not an ounce of rosin in Sunny Monday Laundry Soap. Rosin is used in all other laundry soaps because it is cheaper than the fats and oils used in Sunny Monday. Sunny Monday costs more to manufacture than any other laundry soap of which we know. It is kind to clothes will not shrink flannels or woolens, or turn clothes yellow.

Sunny Monday is just as pure as its whiteness indicates; it is the safest and most economical laundry soap you can use.

JAPANESE MURDERER TO BE EXAMINED BY EXPERT

DENVER, Dec. 16.—Japanese residents of Denver, aided by the Japanese government, are raising money to secure an examination of Genkyo Mitsunaga, the Japanese convicted of the murder of Mrs. Katherine Wilson, by Dr. Hugo Munsterberg, psychologist and criminologist of Harvard.

If, after psychological tests by Dr. Munsterberg, the Japanese are convinced of Mitsunaga's guilt, they will make no further attempt to save him from life imprisonment. If, however, the criminologist reports that there is a reasonable doubt of Mitsunaga's innocence, his countrymen will appeal the case.

The Red Cross pharmacy, 107 East Pikes Peak avenue, has been sold by W. Jasper Musick to W. C. Johnston, for a consideration supposed to be about $10,000. Mr. Musick purchased the Red Cross pharmacy about a year ago from A. Jae Ward, and the store is one of the best known in the city.

It is understood that Mr. Johnston will put a Denver young man in charge. As under the management of Mr. Musick, the store will be run without the sale of liquors of any kind, even for medicinal purposes.

Mr. Johnston, who is a strong Prohibitionist, formerly lived here, but is now a resident of Denver.

SHEAFOR FINES WEBBER AND DAWSON HEAVILY

In the district court yesterday Judge Sheafor denied a motion for a new trial in the cases of Jack Webber and Sam Dawson, found guilty of violating the local option law, fined each defendant $218 and ordered that they be committed to the county jail until the fines and costs are paid. The costs in each case amounted to $116. Unable to pay the fines, both Webber and Dawson were kept in jail last night.

Judge Sheafor expressed the opinion that Webber and Dawson were fortunate to be found guilty on only one of the three counts against them. The court also said that if the defendants were again found guilty of violating the liquor laws that a jail sentence would be imposed.

Police Magistrate Starrett yesterday afternoon issued a mittimus for Webber's arrest and his commitment to the city jail to serve out a fine of $160 assessed against him in police court a few days ago. Webber had been given until yesterday morning to pay the fine, but failed to do so. It is said that the police want Webber after the other authorities are through with him.

THIS AUTO IS "INF CANDY"

A candy automobile, with all the parts reproduced in miniature, made by A. Luscher, pastry chef at the Antlers hotel, is on exhibition in the window of the cigar stand in the entrance to the Exchange National Bank building. HEAVY PROFITS TO BE SHARED SHORTLY

Cripple Creek Mining Company Will Pay Dividends Approximating $250,000.

Various mining companies operating in the Cripple Creek district will send out dividend checks within the next 30 days aggregating about a quarter of a million dollars. The Florida Everglades Land company, controlled by Colorado Springs men, is also paying dividends of $1 a share, the total amounting to $23,000. Practically all of the money given out will be put into circulation in this vicinity, as the stockholders are largely Colorado Springs people.

Mining companies distributing dividends soon are: El Paso, December 24, $24,500. Golden Cycle, January 2, $30,000. Elkton, December 24 $37,500. Gold King, December 17, $19,737. Vindicator, January 3, $45,000. Acacia, January 20, $7,194. Gazette, paid today, $16,500. Portland, January 15, $60,000.

Several other companies, some of them close corporations not making their disbursements public, will undoubtedly declare dividends soon.

ENCOURAGING RESULTS FROM DRAINAGE TUNNEL

Three inches a day is the rate at which the water in the shaft of the Portland mine is receding. Considering the fact that the mine is about two miles from the deep drainage tunnel heading, this is considered a good showing. The executive board of the tunnel company has decided to push forward the breast of the tunnel as long as it continues in the present formation. Water is pouring from numerous holes and crevices near the tunnel heading, and the flow has been increased this week by about 500 gallons. The total flow from the portal is now about 6,800 gallons a minute.

The peculiar properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy have been thoroughly tested during epidemics of influenza, and when it was taken in time we have not heard of a single case of pneumonia. Sold by all dealers.

GIRL RIDING FROM COAST TO COAST ON A COW PONY

Nan J. Aspinwall, better known as Nan Gable, and who claims the world's championship as a woman roper, is riding from San Francisco to New York city on a cow pony to establish a record. She was in the city yesterday en route to Denver. Miss Gable rode here from San Francisco, a distance of 2,121 miles, in 54 days, making an average of 40 miles a day and keeping her horse in good condition. She rode from Canon City yesterday. Her pony has four white feet. Nan Gable carries with her a small Pomeranian pup, which rides on the saddle with her. The girl, who is but 22 years old, is well known on the Pacific coast.

JOHN T. BURNS SPEAKS BEFORE THE APPLE SHOW

Secretary John T. Burns of the Dry Farming congress yesterday spoke before the American Apple congress in Denver on dry farming topics. He made a plea in favor of the closer consideration of dry farming on the part of horticulturists.

"If you will study dry farming you will find the knowledge of great advantage, even though you are farming by irrigation, because you will yearn not to put so much of your fruit values into solution," said Mr. Burns.

He closed his talk with an earnest invitation to all the delegates to attend the next Dry Farming congress here in 1911.

The larger part of the session yesterday was taken up with a discussion of the laws needed to control shipment of apples. Several speeches were made by prominent orchardists on various phases of the apple culture.

Last night an "apple dinner" was held at the Albany hotel, at which practically every item on the menu was made of apples in some shape or other.

GUARDIAN FILES SUIT

Frank J. Baker, guardian of Geanmarie Proctor, the minor heir of Walter N. and Mattie N. Proctor both deceased, filed suit in the county court yesterday, against the Homesteaders, a fraternal organization.

Baker alleges that a $1,000 insurance policy, made out to Walter N. Proctor is due the child as the sole heir. He also asks for an order denying any interest which may be claimed in the money by James A. Orr, executor of the estate of Mattie Proctor, and J. H. Schisler, administrator of the estate of Walter Proctor. The policy was taken out by Proctor in 1907 and made payable to his wife, who died May 19, 1909. Proctor died a year later.

JONES CASE DROPPED

No action was taken by the civil service commission at its meeting yesterday concerning the case of T. R. Jones, appointed poundmaster under a temporary arrangement, and who was refused a certification by the commission on the ground that he had been "politically active." E. H. Joslyn, a member of the commission, desired the other members to reopen the case, but did not receive a second to his motion. Joslyn said that he has a witness who will appear before the commission and swear that he wrote Jones' name on the ballots at the Republican primaries. Joslyn declined to make public the name of the witness.

YOUR STOMACH TROUBLE WILL END FOREVER

Take a Little Diapepsin Now and Your Stomach Will Feel Fine Five Minutes Later.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or you feel bloated after eating and you believe it is the food which fills you; if what little you eat lies like a lump of lead on your stomach; if there is difficulty in breathing after eating, eructations of sour, undigested food and acid, heartburn, brash or a belchings of gas, you can make up your mind that you need something to stop food fermentation and cure Indigestion.

To make every bite of food you eat aid in the nourishment and strength of your body, you must rid your Stomach of poisons, excessive acid and stomach gas, which sours your entire meal—interferes with digestion and causes so many sufferers of Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Biliousness, Constipation, Griping etc. Your case is no different—you are a stomach sufferer, though you may call it by some other name; your real and only trouble is that which you eat does not digest, but quickly ferments and sours, producing almost any unhealthy condition.

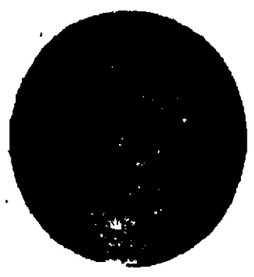

A case of Pape's Diapepsin will cost fifty cents at any Pharmacy here, and will convince any stomach sufferer five minutes after taking a single dose that Fermentation and Sour Stomach is causing the misery of Indigestion.

No matter if you call your trouble Catarrh of the Stomach, Nervousness or Gastritis, or by any other name always remember that a certain cure is waiting at any drug store the moment you decide to begin its use.

Pape's Diapepsin will regulate any out-of-order Stomach within five minutes, and digest promptly, without any fuss or discomfort, all of any kind of food you eat.

PINNOCK MAY RESIGN

Rumors are current around the court house that Harry T. Pinnock is to resign as county jailer. He is in Los Angeles at present. It is understood that Pinnock would not be a candidate for reappointment next month and while it is denied at the sheriff's office that he has resigned it is not denied that he may do so. Charles Birdsall, brother of the sheriff is mentioned as a probable appointee.

Mr. Smith has purchased a 640-acre irrigated tract for $60,000.

Wandell and Lowe recently bought of Sanderson and Reinken the Colorado Springs Transfer and Storage company.

The next four months Messrs. Sanderson and Reinken will spend with their families at Long Beach, Cal. They leave on Monday.

A sprained ankle will usually disable the injured person for three or four weeks. This is due to lack of proper treatment. PREDICTS ENORMOUS DEVELOPMENT WORK

F. F. Castello, president of the Mary McKinney Mining company, and also of the Colorado Springs Mining Stock association, predicts an immense amount of development work in the Cripple Creek district within the next 18 months. The main shaft of the Mary McKinney mine will soon be sunk from the present level of 735 feet to a depth of about 200 feet more.

The lease which has been held on the main workings of the property for the last two years by the Western Development company of Cripple Creek will not be renewed when it expires January 6, according to a decision of the directors made this week.

The 14 feet of water that has been standing in the main shaft for several years has disappeared. Work on the main shaft will commence in March.

Charles Castello, son of President Castello, has been elected a director to fill the place left vacant by the death of Frank J. Campbell several months ago.

START ACTUAL WORK ON MIDLAND CONSTRUCTION

Twenty-five cars of horses, mules and equipment for grading are now at Newcastle, Colo., on the Colorado Midland road and within a few days the preliminary work will be started to build that line through Meeker, Colo., thence down the White river to Salt Lake City.

Announcement was made several weeks ago that the Hill interests were about to get their own connection to Salt Lake City via the Midland, but it was not then known at what time the actual work would commence. The beginning of activities at Newcastle in such a wholesale way apparently means that the Hill interests intend to put through their line at once.

If you are suffering from biliousness constipation, indigestion, chronic headache invest one cent in a postal card, send to Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Ia., with your name and address plainly on the back, and they will forward you a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. "Sunkist" Oranges for Health

A Veritable FEAST of "Sunkist" Oranges for Christmas!

Santa Claus Has Just Arrived, Bringing Millions of California's Finest Oranges the "SUNKIST" Kind. On Sale All Week at Your Dealer's!

Oranges for breakfast! Oranges for lunch! Oranges between meals! Oranges served whole and in halves! Oranges in desserts and salads! Oranges in every conceivable form.

That is the program for Christmas and the Holidays. The people of this city and vicinity are to be given an orange treat such as they have never had before.

For millions of delicious, fresh, tree-ripened, hand-picked oranges, direct from California's fruit farms, have arrived. They will be on sale Monday morning. Your fruit dealer will supply you at a very reasonable price.

The Perfect Orange

"Sunkist" is not a species, size or variety of orange it is a certain grade or quality, the choicest of each of 5,000 California Orange Farmers, who produce 20% of the state's entire crop. They pack all their perfect oranges under the one name, "Sunkist," and ship them by special fast freight.

It is a tree-ripened orange. Every "Sunkist" orange is firm, solid and sound. It is picked by a gloved hand. No orange that falls to the ground or becomes bruised or damaged in any other way, ever bears the "Sunkist" name.

You Save Money by Getting "Sunkists"

In addition to being the finest flavored of all oranges, "Sunkist" are also the most economical you can buy.

Being thin-skinned, fibreless and seedless, they are nearly all "meat" and no waste. You waste money when you buy any other kind of oranges.

Buy a box of "Sunkist" oranges and your fruit dealer will make you a special price. You will find no trouble in keeping them as long as you want to, for all "Sunkists" reach you in excellent condition.

Most Healthful Fruit Known

Physicians now claim that the orange is the most healthful of all fruits. Hence, it is a food that can be eaten liberally and as often as desired. It is much more appetizing and healthful for children, men and women than candy, pastry and other too-rich foods.

Medical authorities state that to counteract the meats and other heavy foods we eat, one should eat oranges liberally. It is a universally known fact that orange juice is an excellent food for the brain cells and a tonic for run-down nerves. No better laxative than sound, ripe oranges can be found.

CHECKING SHORT WEIGHTS

Mayor Ayers again announced yesterday that 2,000 pounds of coal constitute a ton and that he is going to see that the consumer gets 2,000 pounds for every ton ordered. During the week plain clothes men from the police and health departments have been trailing coal wagons, checking up weights and gathering evidence that will be put into shape by the city attorney and police clerk.

While facts and figures are not given out for publication at present, it is known that the investigators have found numerous instances of weights running from 100 to 400 pounds short in tons supposed to contain 2,000 pounds. Under the city ordinance coal dealers are required to furnish certificates of weight with each ton of coal delivered.

ANSWERS EVERY CALL

Colorado Springs People Have Found That This Is True.

A cold, a strain, a sudden wrench,
A little [illegible] may hurt the kidneys.
Spells of backache often follow,
Or some irregularity of the urine.
A certain remedy for such attacks,
A medicine that answers every call.
Is Doan's Kidney Pills a true specific.
Many Colorado Springs people rely on it.
Here is Colorado Springs proof.

Mrs. J. H. Rowton, 1508 Grant avenue, Colorado Springs, Colo., says: "The statement I gave for publication, recommending Doan's Kidney Pills, in December, 1906, still holds good. We continue to value this remedy as highly as ever and have on more than one occasion spoken in its favor. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the D. T. Butcher Drug Co., were used in our family in a case of kidney complaint. The person who had this trouble suffered a great deal from pain and swelling in the feet and was hardly able to stand at times. Doan's Kidney Pills brought prompt relief and once or twice since then when they have been taken, good results have followed."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

THE COLORADO SPRINGS SPIRIT.

THE genuine enthusiasm with which the proposal to unite the various civic organizations into one body has been received is the best thing that has happened in Colorado Springs in many years. Everybody is talking Commercial Club and talking for it. It was reasonable to expect that some slight opposition would develop, but fortunately there is none whatever.

This condition reveals a state of the public mind which is tremendously significant. It shows that there is a general realization that Colorado Springs must do something to put itself on the map, and do it now. The fact that everybody frankly recognizes this truth and is working to obtain results makes the situation more hopeful than it has ever been before.

This is the spirit we need a real Colorado Springs spirit. Once engender the feeling in every man's breast that it is his duty to do something for his city as well as for himself, and the whole problem of civic progress is solved. The Gazette has often contended that there is as much money, intelligence and good intentions in Colorado Springs as in any other city, but that it did not produce results because there was a lack of the right spirit to organize these forces and direct them in the right channel. Now within the last month this spirit has been created. Conditions were ripe for action, and only a little agitation of the subject was needed to bring everybody together in the common cause.

It is really wonderful how the various prejudices and dislikes which have done so much to retard Colorado Springs in the past, and in which all of us have shared, have disappeared in the face of the new Colorado Springs spirit. A year ago a similar effort was made to consolidate the civic bodies, but it failed. Now it is going through with unbounded enthusiasm. The Chamber of Commerce, the Merchants' Association, the Real Estate Exchange and the Automobile Club have already appointed committees to arrange a plan of consolidation, and it is almost a certainty that before the 1st of January the Commercial Club will be fully organized.

PLENTY OF WORK IN SIGHT.

And think of the possibilities of such a body! Everybody in Colorado Springs who has an active interest in the city will be a member and contribute to its support. Thus the organization will not be merely a name, but will represent something; it will represent Colorado Springs, its business and professional interests, its civic aspirations, its public spirit and enterprise. With its work in charge of an experienced secretary, backed by an active, aggressive executive committee or board of directors, the Commercial Club will be in a position to go after things and to get what it goes after.

For instance, the work of getting conventions for Colorado Springs can be systematized just as it has been by the Chicago Association of Commerce and other civic bodies that have succeeded in this direction. The plan of paving and otherwise improving the business streets can be pushed through. It ought to be finished before the beginning of the next tourist season; indeed, no other improvement that could be made would so enhance the attractiveness of the business section and make it presentable to our summer visitors. We must not forget that the business section is to a city what the show window is to a store the part that first draws the attention of passersby and either attracts or repels by its appearance.

The spirit of progress is in the air. Everybody is anxious to get in line and push for a bigger and better Colorado Springs, to do the many needed things that will make this a better place to live in and do business in. The first step is the formation of an alert, hustling organization, and the rest will follow. With this idea uppermost in everybody's mind, there never was a time when the future of Colorado Springs was as bright as at the present time.

STORM SEWERS.

A RESIDENT of the portion of the city which would be drained by the proposed storm sewer system, offers a protest in the Open Parliament this morning on the ground that the sewers are not needed in that particular locality. He admits, however, that "we must have storm sewers," before paving can be laid.

It seems to us that when he admits this much he closes his case. It is perfectly plain that the surface water cannot be carried off in the gutters, nor can it be emptied into the sanitary sewers. Wherever street paving is laid the storm sewer is a necessary accompaniment. It is generally admitted that the business streets of Colorado Springs must be paved without unnecessary delay, and it follows logically that storm sewers must also be built. And if they are built somebody must pay for them. The law is quite clear as to who shall bear the burden of expense in each case the property owners in the affected district.

This being the situation, it is hard to understand the attitude of the people who profess to favor these improvements, yet seek to delay them by interposing all sorts of trumped-up objections. Everybody who is familiar with conditions in the portion of the city included in the storm sewer district knows that it is subject to overflow after heavy storms. A large volume of water from the gutters which drain the locality to the north of it passes through that district, inundating lawns and sometimes running into cellars.

The only way to remedy this is by the construction of storm sewers, and we cannot have storm sewers unless somebody pays for them. The law places this burden on the people who would be most benefited by the improvement, and in considering the protests now being voiced the Council should give small heed to those which obviously spring from a desire to avoid the expense.

STORM SEWERS.

To the Editor of The Gazette:

I have hoped someone would say something through Open Parliament, in reference to the storm sewer district. I have been on a still hunt for several days, and so far fail to find a single property owner, east of Nevada avenue and from Pikes Peak avenue to the south limit of said storm sewer district that favors the ordinance creating same. I have lived on South Wahsatch for the past 10 years and will say, and can back it up by every resident that (notwithstanding the fact that we have paid taxes for ditches and reservoirs), we never have enough water to keep the shade trees alive. And the heaviest rains don't fill the gutters one-fourth full. The point with us is, why should we be taxed for ditch water, as in the past, and now an exorbitant tax placed on us to take that water away, seems like "adding insult to injury."

A sprinkling cart is never seen in this locality or never has been. I hope the taxpayers in the storm sewer district will turn out en masse and express their views.

I realize the fact that we must have storm sewers, in the street paving district. But having lived here 24 years, and being in the building business most of that time, I have a knowledge of our needs. I know that a storm sewer east of Nevada avenue is absolutely uncalled for at the present time, or any time until the streets are paved. I see by the Herald-Telegraph, Mr. Lawton says something must be done to take care of the water that backs up at all street corners, runs onto the sidewalk and into the basements of buildings. If you can find a man east of Nevada avenue and south of Pikes Peak avenue that has suffered from a surplus of surface water at any time, I would like to see him. It's the lack of water that worries us. What we want is "justice."

S. P. DUFF.

CONSIDERABLE WEDDING, WHAT?

From the Durango Herald.

Such a wealth of happiness and affection radiated from the hearts of Angie Hayden and Odes Laird when they one to the other publicly plighted their troth, the mighty and beautiful god Cupid must have paused a moment in his labors of love to smile his approval upon them. Hundreds of friends were gathered at the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening to witness this joyous and brilliant event. The very atmosphere seemed permeated with the happy and informal spirit of the occasion. Promptly at 8:30 the soft strains of Lohengrin's wedding march were sounded and the ushers took their places on either side the foliage bower. From the west door the matron of honor and the flower girl entered and wended their way to the east entrance to meet the bride. Holding a white chrysanthemum on whose breast the wedding ring rested, the flower girl led the way to the altar. The bride, leaning on the arm of her father, was immediately preceded by the matron of honor. The groom and best man awaited their coming.

In a voice touched with emotion the Rev. Mr. Crozier invoked the divine blessing. The vows to be brave in peril, constant in joy or tribulation, devoted in sickness and in health, temperate in all changes of fortune, and down to the gates of death loving and loyal each to the other, were registered. Upon the bride's hand the wedding ring rested, and the momentous words husband and wife forever and forever were said. As the notes of the ever beautiful "O, Promise Me" and "Annie Laurie" swelled into the triumphant wedding march the newly made husband, with a depth of reverent tenderness in his manner, pressed the first kiss upon the lips of Angie Hayden Laird.

The bride was attired in an exquisite hand embroidered duchess satin, entraine. From Ireland came the Carrack-Me-Cros lace which formed the trimming. The imported Brussels net veil which reached the bottom of her gown and held in place by lilies of the valley gave her a most bewitching appearance. Always beautiful she never presented a more charming picture than on her wedding day. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley that flower which to those who look not only for the ever present beauty but to trace some significance in the blossom to the human thoughts, emotions and passions it brings the message of enduring love.

In her going away gown of dark green broadcloth, and a picturesque hat in Persian effect she looked like a brown eyed flower against a hedge of Norway pine. Her trousseau throughout was most elegant in detail, a wonderful array, dainty lingerie, pretty tailored suits and appropriate gowns for all occasions.

A more popular girl than Mrs. Angie Hayden Laird has never resided in our city. She possesses the amiable and elevated qualities that appeal to the chivalry of men and the warm heartedness of women. Interesting at all times she is light hearted and prone to look upon the sunny side of every prospect. Mr. Odes Laird is just the sort of personage to captivate a girl of the period tall, handsome, accomplished, and above all, manly. During his several extended visits to Durango he has made a large circle of friends, who, by common consent designate him a good fellow. It was here he met the girl destined to be his wife. A friendship based upon congenial tastes ultimately kindled into love. Richly endowed with the world's goods, with true love the safe pilot on the sea of matrimony, with married friendship the matrimonial rock of ages, their future is cast of golden promise.

100,000,000 WITH THE TUMOR.

From the Hartford Times.

Several newspapers announce in large headlines that the United States of America "has now passed the 100,000,000 mark, including the Philippines and Porto Rico." This is much as if a man with a ten-pound tumor on the back of his neck should brag about his increase in weight.

A POSTOFFICE ITEM.

From the Saturday Evening Post.

Why we are in debt to Europe when we sell her more goods, by hundreds of millions of dollars, than we buy from her, constitutes a simple problem that puzzles many people. One of the reasons is that, last year, residents of the United States sent abroad ninety million dollars by postal money orders. Of this sum, twenty-two millions went to Italy; twenty-six millions to Austria-Hungary and Russia, representing remittances home by emigrants from those countries, of whom more than eight hundred thousand have arrived in this country in a recent year.

Probably postal orders constitute the smaller part of such remittances. Sometimes the money is sent to provide passage to this country for another emigrant, although the common practice in such cases is to buy a steamship ticket here, with a cash coupon for the incidental expenses of the voyage. Much of this great sum undoubtedly represents savings; and, with postal savings banks generally established in this country, not a little of it will remain here.

I have lived a long time in this valley of tears,
And my head has been whitened by hurrying years;
I've sized up the world as I toddled along,
I've sampled the right and I've sampled the wrong;
I have herded with goats and I've frolicked with sheep,
I have learned how to laugh and I've learned how to weep;
I have loafed, I have dreamed, I have whacked up some wood,
And I'm sure of this fact, that it pays to be good.
Whene'er I do wrong, with malicious intent,
Then I feel for a while like a counterfeit cent;
I would swap myself off for a watch made of brass,
I haven't the courage to look in the glass.
But when I do right, then how cheaty I feel!
The village is filled with my jubilant spiel:
I feel that a feather is placed in my hood,
And I guess I am right, for it pays to be good.
Oh, what are the things of particular worth?
And what are the prizes we gain upon earth?
They are not the gems that go clickety-clank,
They are not the bundles we have in the bank.
Respect of our neighbors, the love of our friends,
Some credit up there where the firmament bends—
These things are the guerdon for which we should strive,
They give us an object in being alive.
And you'll never gain them, as gain them you would,
Unless you believe that it pays to be good.

The Daily Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

As we were passing through a narrow passageway leading toward the trains in a certain big depot the other night three men bore down upon us, running as if for dear life, and, as they tornadoed past, knocked my companion's umbrella from his hand.

He picked it up, brushed it off, opened his mouth as if to speak, and then closed it again, without speaking.

I tried to relieve his feelings by railing against the abominable rudeness and carelessness of the feelings of others that some people show, but, to my surprise, he didn't seem to feel grateful.

"What's the matter," I queried, "why don't you say something?"

"Well, you know," he answered, "I was going to say something quite vigorous, and then I stopped to think first if I might not have done the same thing in their places. You see it's 11 o'clock, and that was their last train. If they'd missed it they'd have had to stay here all night or take a two-hour trip on the electrics. I suppose I might have been a little bit careless myself if I'd had their reasons for hurrying.

"I try to make it a plan never to let myself get angry at anyone until I've put myself in the other fellow's place and been able to say, 'I know I wouldn't have done it under those circumstances.'"

THE COMMERCIAL BASIS

How's that for a plan? Whenever a wave of indignation or resentment or displeasure against anyone sweeps over you, try to force it back until you have "put yourself in his place."

I think it is a pretty good plan.

I have tried it several times, and like my companion of the other night, I can't give myself the right to be angry very often.

I tried it the other day in a lunch room.

I ordered some salad. It arrived without bread and butter. The waitress, having deposited it, scooted away, and apparently did not contemplate returning. After waiting several minutes, I inquired mildly of a waitress who strayed near my table if they didn't serve bread and butter with salad there. "She's getting it for you just as fast as she can," she snapped.

I had inquired mildly and didn't think I deserved any such reply, so my first impulse was to be vexed with the waitress for being a disagreeable old thing. And then I made myself stop and think, "Suppose I'd worked hard all day, and was tired, and suppose I heard some one casting what I considered an aspersion upon a sister waitress, who also had worked hard, wasn't it just possible that I might have resented it in a similar manner."

And I felt so very uncertain of the answer that I had to make myself swallow my indignation post haste.

A most interesting and eye-opening plan, truly! Won't you try it the next time you are inclined to feel indignant or resentful against or superior to anybody?

Hints Heard Here

Madam Santa Claus may be glad to know of the many hints dropped in this store, the last week.

One fine gentleman was heard to express the hope that he wouldn't have to wear his old fancy vest after Christmas.

A popular business man said: "If any of my friends inquire about my needs for Christmas, don't forget to show them those folding canes."

A politician has cast his eyes longingly on several different occasions, on a certain pure thread silk teefer that he pictures himself wearing with his full dress outfit.

And there are a dozen other hints dropped that our salesmen have picked up in the course of the day. They will be glad to tell you what most men want.

Books and Magazines

The Life of Mary Baker G. Eddy.

"The Life of Mary Baker G. Eddy, and the History of Christian Science," by Georgine Milmine. Doubleday, Page & Co., publishers, New York. Price $2.00, net.

To Christian Scientists, of course, Mrs. Eddy was the most wonderful woman who has ever lived. To every thinking person she was one of the most remarkable characters of modern times, and as such her life, written in an unprejudiced manner, must be of absorbing interest. Naturally her history is intimately connected with the history of Christian Science. Miss Milmine has written intimately and personally of her from her childhood up to a few years ago. She has told how this nervous invalid 40 years ago has become a woman of large private fortune and has controlled expenditures running into millions of dollars for the various buildings and other work of the sect she founded. Mrs. Eddy's recent death has called her once more and for the last time into the eye of the general public and to all who care to investigate her history we can recommend this volume.

"What to Do at Recess"

"What to Do at Recess," by George Ellsworth Johnson. Ginn & Co., publishers, Boston.

Mr. Johnson is the superintendent of the Pittsburg Playground association and the author of "Education by Plays and Games," a rather complete treatise on the value of play in education. He is well equipped to write on this subject as he has made a special study of it and has had much practical experience on the recreation grounds in Pittsburg. The present little volume contains good advice and valuable suggestions to the teacher who wants to supervise and encourage her charges to get the most good out of their playtime.

"West Point, Its Glamour and Its Grind."

"West Point, Its Glamour and Its Grind," by Captain Harold Hammond. U. S. A. Cupples & Leon Co., publishers, New York.

This is a fine book for boys. It gives the history of a young man who went to West Point and tells without any romantic additions to the truth of the life of a cadet at that institution.

"The Care and Training of Children."

"The Care and Training of Children" by Le Grand Kerr, M. D. Funk & Wagnalls Co., publishers, New York.

Dr. Kerr is a child specialist of renown and has written much on the subject of babies and children. The present volume contains much practical and common sense advice on the subject indicated in its title and can be recommended to all parents of young children.

"The Duty of Happiness"

"The Duty of Happiness," by Sir John Lubbock. H. M. Caldwell company, publishers.

A new edition of Sir John Lubbock's admirable essay on "The Duty of Happiness" now is provided, boxed, nicely printed, bound in flexible red leather, well suited for a pleasing gift to a friend or one's own pocket library. The interesting title topic never has been better covered than in the thoughtful and scholarly discourse herewith offered in such attractive form.

Mary Baker G. Eddy

"Mary Baker G. Eddy," by Arthur Brisbane. The Ball Publishing Co., publishers, Boston.

This is a little volume describing an interview that the author had with Mrs. Eddy in Concord, in 1907. It is written in the adoring and reverent style of the devout Christian Scientist, and will doubtless appeal to the members of that church and to very few others.

GIRL FOUND WITH THREE BULLETS IN HER BODY

DENVER, Dec. 16.—Daisy Wilde, 17 years old, was found in a critical condition this afternoon with three revolver wounds in her breast. She was discovered by her brother, Fred, 15 years old, alone in her home. She said the revolver had exploded accidentally while she was examining it.

Miss Wilde was employed by a department store and lives with her mother, Mrs. Bertha Wilde, and her brother Fred. Complaining of feeling ill, she remained at home today. Her mother was away from the house when the shooting took place. The girl is in a very serious condition.

The Gazette quotes an article from the Atlantic Monthly in which the author, R. G. White, undertook to prove that Sarah Bernhardt was not a great artist in her profession.

The Gazette commented favorably on a book recently published by Prof. Robert Tenney of Colorado College. The title of the book was "Colorado and Homes in the New West."

Mrs. H. P. Hobart returned from a visit to the east.

FRENCH AVIATORS HERE TO TRY FOR BIG PRIZE

Audemars and Bellot Will Attempt Coast to Coast Flight—Marking Harmon's Route.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—Audemars and Andre Bellot, French aviators, arrived here today to make plans for the transcontinental flight from New York to San Francisco, for which William R. Hearst has offered a prize of $50,000.

The prize was declared open on October 10, 1910, and may be competed for at any time before October 10, 1911. The winner must cover the distance within 30 days, but he may make as many stops for food, fuel and repairs as he wishes.

Under the direction of the aeronautical reserve, Louis T. Haney and an engineer sailed today for Panama to survey the route across the isthmus which Clifford B. Harmon intends to follow in a biplane early in March. There are few landing places along the canal, and what there are must be mapped and marked. The course will be marked by box kites set out at five-mile intervals. Government heliograph stations also will flash directions.

The take-off of the flight will be from the deck of the steamship on which Mr. Harmon will make the trip to Panama, but instead of starting from a platform built to overhang the ship's stern the aeroplane will rise from a runway 150 feet long built parallel to the keel. Between the running channels there will be an open space to permit free circulation of air so that the pressure on the planes will be the same during the initial run as during the flight itself.

These precautions, it is thought, will make the rising conditions much the same aboard ship as on land. The platform will be built here and shipped in boxes. It can be set up in two hours.

RIOTING IN WINNIPEG

WINNIPEG, Dec. 16.—Rioting began late this afternoon in connection with the street car strike when a crowd of 500 men gathered at Rupert and Main streets and began to hurl missiles.

One woman was hurt by a piece of iron hurled through a car window. The troops at Fort Osborne barracks are held in readiness for possible trouble.

WOMAN WORKED THREE YEARS AS SECTION HAND

PUEBLO, Dec. 16.—When she donned women's clothes for the first time in three years, Mrs. Sallie Starter, who has worked as a section hand near here for three years, was arrested for vagrancy. "That the improvements to be made in Storm Sewer District No. 1 shall consist of the construction of district or main sewers and manholes, for storm drainage for all of said District. That after the construction of said district or main sewers and manholes in said Storm Sewer District No. 1, the council will, as circumstances may require, provide separately for the construction of catch basins, connections with main sewer, and all other necessary appurtenances for complete storm drainage in and for the whole or a part of sub-districts numbered A and B. In behalf of which additional work, new and additional proceedings will be taken, additional and new approximate estimates of the costs will be made and due notice will be given as provided for by the ordinances of the city relating to public improvements.

"That the probable cost, as shown by the total estimate of the engineer, of the district or main sewers and manholes in Storm Sewer District No. 1 is $40,448.30, and that the maximum share of said total estimate that will be assessed upon any lot or lands in the district will be as follows, to-wit: On a platted lot of 25 by 190 feet and containing 4,750 square feet, the assessment will be $32.82. The shares will increase or diminish, as the case may be, in the proportion that the area of any lot or tract bears to 4,750 square feet.

"That to the said total estimate and to the respective shares thereof, or to so much of said estimate and shares as may be required to pay the actual cost of said sewers, there will be added all general expenses, including engineering, advertising, etc., and there will also be added six per centum for costs of collection and other incidentals, and there will also be added interest at the rate of six per centum per annum on the bonds issued from time to time, in payment of said total cost, said interest to run from the time of issue of said bonds, in payment of the general expenses and other costs of said improvements, to the time the first installment of the assessment becomes due.

"That said assessment shall be due and payable without demand within thirty days from and after the final passage of the ordinance, assessing the whole cost against said real estate; providing, however, that any owner who shall pay his full assessment within said period of thirty days may receive a discount of six per centum, added for cost of collection, etc., and also a discount on such payment, at six per centum per annum from the date of said payment to the time the first installment is payable, or in default thereof, in ten equal annual installments of principal, with interest at six per centum on unpaid installments, the first of said installments shall be due and payable upon the next succeeding date after the passage of said assessing ordinance upon which general taxes, or the first installment thereof, are by the laws of this state made payable, and the remainder of said installments shall be due and payable successively on the same day of each year thereafter until paid in full.

"That a map of the district to be assessed showing the location of the proposed sewer mains and manholes, from which map the approximate share of said total cost that will be assessed upon each piece of real estate in the district may be readily ascertained; the estimates of the engineer and all proceedings of the council in the premises are on file and can be seen and examined by any person interested, at the office of the City Engineer at any time during business hours on or before and until eleven o'clock a. m. on the 28th day of December, 1910; on which day and at said hour the council will hear at the Council Chamber in the City Hall, all complaints and objections concerning the proposed sewers and appurtenances that may be made by the owners of any real estate to be assessed, or by any person interested.

"That the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to cause to be published for ten days in a daily newspaper of general circulation in the city, a notice directed to the property owners and all persons interested in the said improvements, without naming them, which notice shall recite the substance of this resolution and notify said property owners of the time and place when a hearing will be had as herein provided for."

As directed by said resolution, I hereby notify you that on the 28th day of December, at the hour of eleven o'clock a. m., at the council chamber in the City Hall, a hearing will be had by the council as provided in said resolution, and that at said time and place you may present your views concerning any and all matters pertaining to said district and the improvements proposed to be made therein.

STOCKS DULL, BONDS MAINTAIN STRENGTH

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—The comparative strength and activity of the bond market was again the principal feature of interest in today's operations on the stock exchange. Stocks were dull though firm, but the demand for bonds was well maintained as was evidenced in the general higher price level. Further gains were made by the issues of the Central Georgia railroad and the beneficial effect of the recent court decision on these particular issues seems to have extended throughout the list. The market opening was irregular with some heaviness in United States Steel most likely attributed to the announcement that operations at one of the corporation's largest mills are to be curtailed indefinitely because of poor business. Forecasts of the weekly cash movement point to a small loss of local banking institutions. Heavy shipments of currency to the Pacific coast and the southwest have been largely offset by receipts from the interior and taking the week's general activity into account, no marked changes are likely in tomorrow's bank statement. Transactions in foreign exchange were seemingly without bearing on the gold imports situation. At this time there are no indications that an American bid will be made for the South African gold to be delivered in London next Monday, but a much larger consignment is due there later in the week and some of that may go to our bankers.

Total sales of bonds, par value, $2,181,000.

U. S. bonds were unchanged.

HEAVY SELLING OF WHEAT CAUSES DROP

CHICAGO, Dec. 16.—An estimated highest yield on the Argentine export surplus, 110,000,000 bushels, led to much selling of wheat here today. Largely in consequence the close was at a net decline of ¼@⅜c to ⅝@¾c, corn finished ¼@⅜c to ½c down, oats off a shade to ⅛c, and provisions unchanged to 17½c greater cost.

The tone of wheat was heavy all day. Traders generally put a bearish construction on the government's crop reports and figured the total as depressing in view of the absence of foreign demand. Shipments were big from Argentine, India and Australia so that distrust was aroused by a prediction that the world's aggregate shipments would be light. The market was also influenced by the large primary receipts in this country and by the liberal stocks on hand. Another fact that weighed against prices came in the shape of rather vigorous foreign selling here. Some reaction followed but the tone in the end was weak. May ranged from 95½c to 96⅛c, closing ⅝@¾c net lower at 95⅜c.

With huge consignments of corn, the market for that grain sagged from the start. May sold between 48⅛c and 47¾c, closing down easy ⅛c down at 47½c. Cash corn was weak. No. 2 yellow finished at 51@51½c.

Constant daily deliveries weakened oats. May varied from 34@34⅛c to 34¼c, and closed a shade off at 34⅛@¼c.

Hog receipts were decidedly less than a year ago and shorts in product covered. The net result was to leave pork at a net advance of 12½@15c to 17½c, lard unchanged to 5c up, and ribs the same as last night to 2½c advance.

LESSEES EXPOSE STRONG VEIN ON THE FINDLEY

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Dec. 16.—Lessees Frank Mullin and Victor associates, operating at the eleventh level of the Findley Consolidated Mining company's main shaft in the town of Independence on Bull hill, have opened up one of the strongest ore bodies exposed to date in the mine workings. The vein the main Findley at the junction with a cross vein is fully 16 feet wide, but the lessees are confining their attention to drifting on the foot wall carrying the drift about six feet wide. The ore is [illegible] and is making a two-ounce product, the highest grade ore shipped in months from the property. Mullin and his partners are making ready for heavy production.

Mineral Hill.

A. J. Perrault, a former Cripple Creek operator, who has returned to the district, has secured a long-time lease on the Sun Consolidated Gold Mines company's estate on Mineral hill, together with a lease on the Last Claim adjoining, and has started to sink a shaft from surface on the Otis placer, near to the dividing line between the two properties. Some years ago, Perrault sank a deep shaft on the Last Claim, and at shallow depth obtained fair values.

Brittain and son, owning property north of the Sun Consolidated group, and holding a bond and lease on the Laura Lee claim, have also resumed operations.

The Mineral Hill tunnel, now being driven ahead by public subscription to the stock of the Mineral Hill Tunnel and Railway company, has been advanced about 365 feet. A contract for 50 feet of work was recently let to Bernard Robbins of this city.

The QUESTION ANSWERED

Give Him a Morris Chair

A big soft upholstered Morris Chair is the most comfortable thing on earth

When your husband comes home at night tired out, does he have a deep padded chair to sink into while he reads the evening paper?

Nothing you can get for him will be more useful or make him more happy.

These Royal Morris Chairs are like beds of down they are carefully upholstered and so inviting that only a blind man could escape their invitation to sink down with a sigh of comfort and rest.

They last for generations.

Mr. Husband, we've received all the Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets we can get before Christmas. Don't put it off till they're all gone.
